Dear Sir/Madam

I have extensive experience in institutional work, professional diversity with multiple tasks and roles, and physical and skill readiness to perform the tasks required of me to the fullest extent.

What I know I will do, and what I don't know I will learn and excel at. I strive with enthusiasm and energy to gain and add more experience to my professional life.

I have great flexibility to work anytime, anywhere and any tasks to serve your business plans with enthusiasm and sincerity.

I have no problem or objection to leaving Egypt and moving to my new place of work, while being prepared to contribute to transportation and care expenses. Attached is my CV. Please see my attached application for consideration.
